

Provincial Organizations

Each province or territory has its own organization for home educators. Often these organizations serve as an information hub to provide basic, province-specific home education information. There, you can find details about legislation that may affect homeschoolers, and whether you are required to register to home educate. They may also help you find a support group in your area. They are a wealth of information that can be of great assistance to the novice homeschooler.

Alberta – www.aheaonline.com

British Columbia – www.bchomeschool.net

Manitoba – www.machs.ca

New Brunswick – www.henb.org

Newfoundland – www.chenl.ca

Northwest Territories – www.homeschoolcanada.ca/northwest-territories

Nunavut – http://www.movingtoigaluit.com/pb/wp\_c33f72ce/wp\_c33f72ce.html

Ontario – www.ocheq.org

Prince Edward Island – www.peihomeschool.com

Quebec – www.acpeq.org

Saskatchewan – www.shbe.info

