Lesson 1: Appositives and Appositive Phrases

An appositive is a noun or pronoun that renames or identifies another noun or pronoun right beside it. It gives extra information not essential to the meaning of the sentence. Comma(s) are used to set it off from the rest of the sentence. The appositive is diagrammed in parentheses on the main line directly after the noun that is renamed.

The very tall man in the corner is my teacher, Mr. Dalton.

An appositive phrase consists of an appositive and its modifiers.

My teacher is Mr. Dalton, the very tall man in the corner.
