A sheep sat in the sunshine.

“I am hot,” said the sheep.

"It must be fun to be a fish," said the sheep.

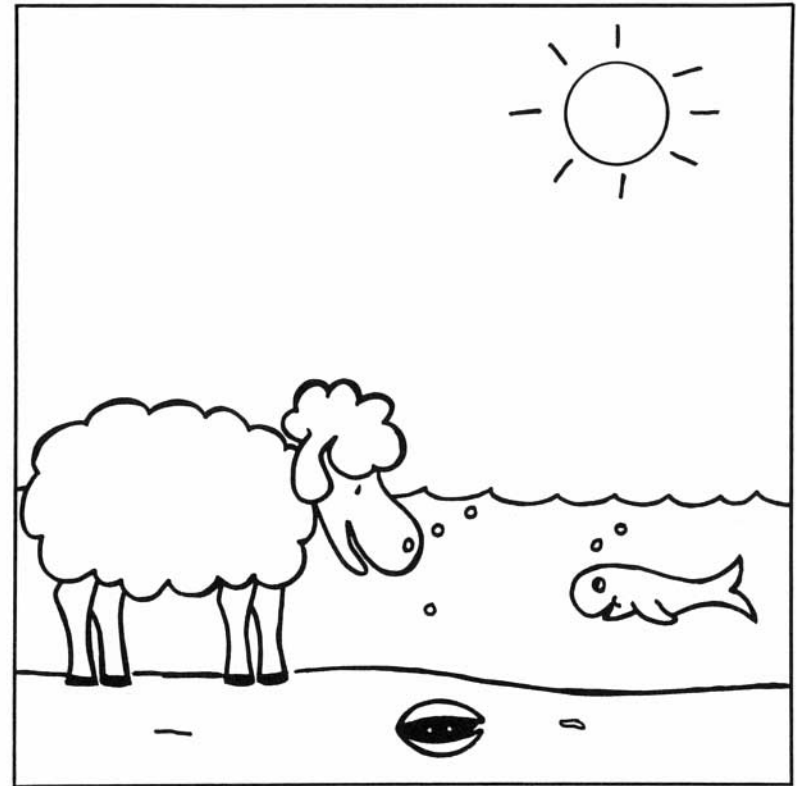

"I shall jump in," said the sheep.

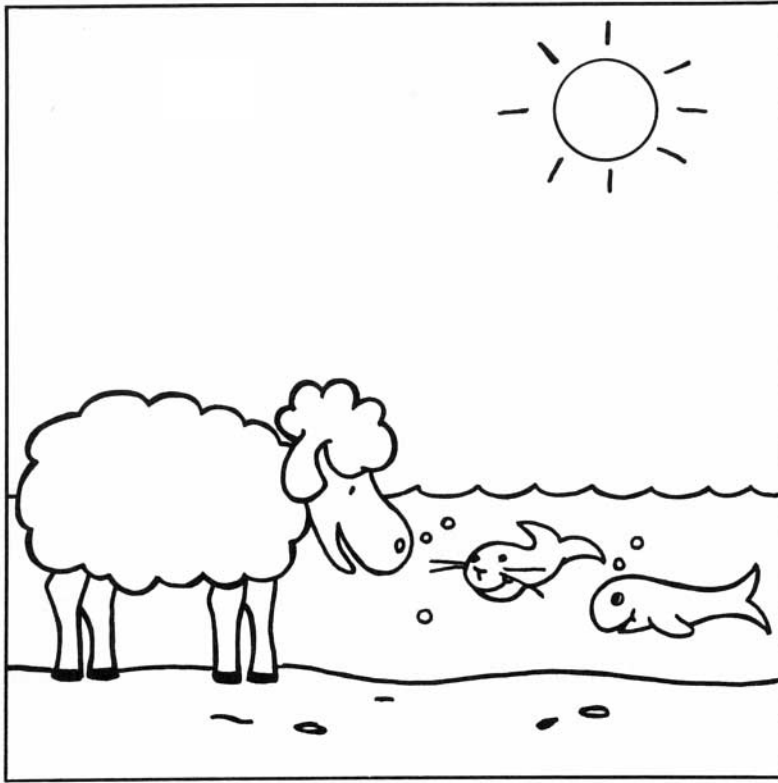

"It will be fun to swim and splash."

A fish came up to the sheep.
The sheep stuck his nose in.

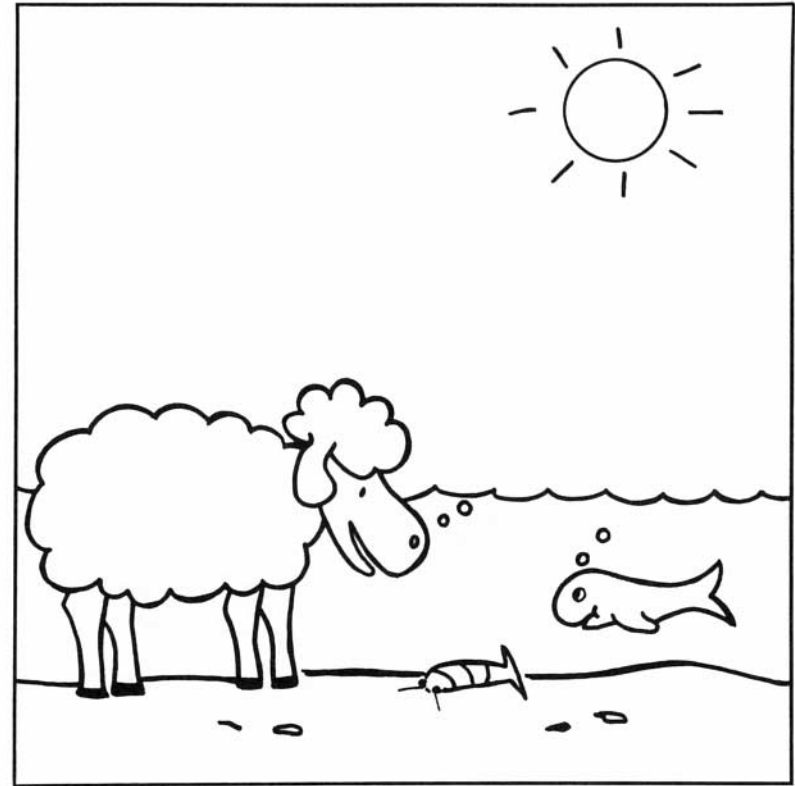

"I see a rock," said the sheep.
"That is not a rock," said the fish.
"It is a clam in his shell."

"I see a cat," said the sheep.

"She is not a cat," said the fish.

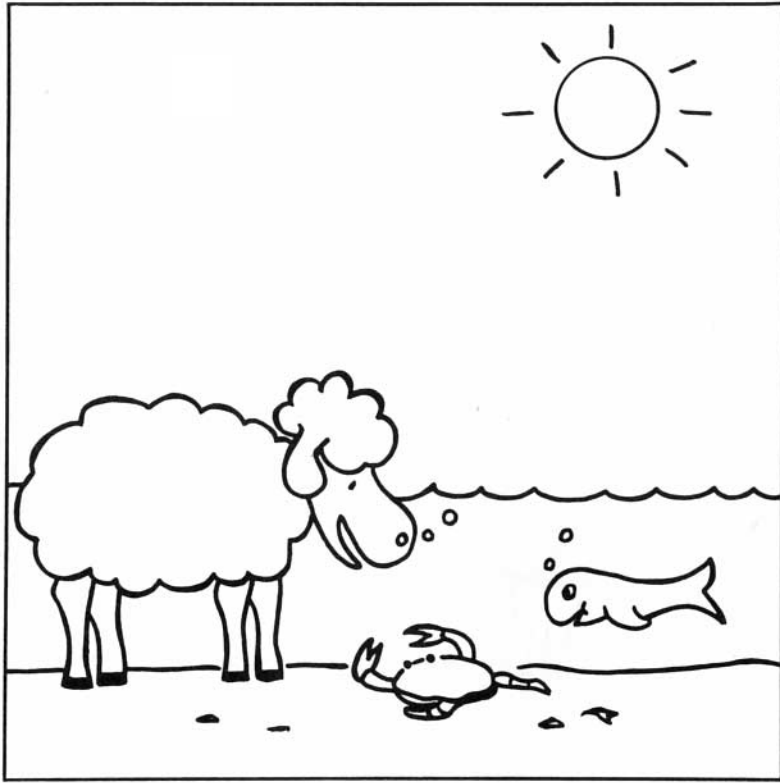

"She is a catfish."

"I see a bug," said the sheep.

"That is not a bug," said the fish.

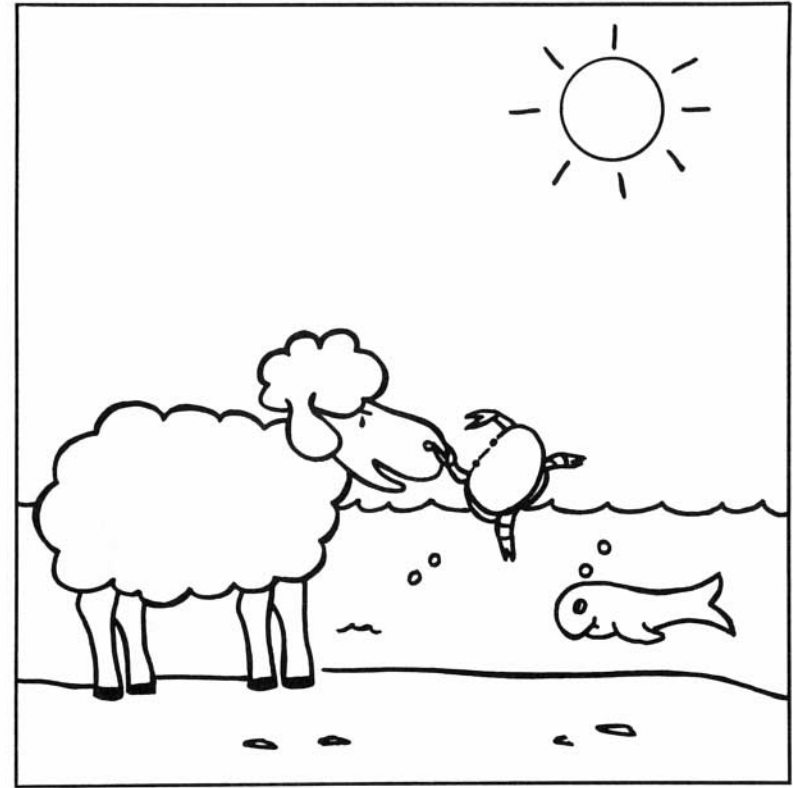

"It is a shrimp."

"I see a big bug," said the sheep.

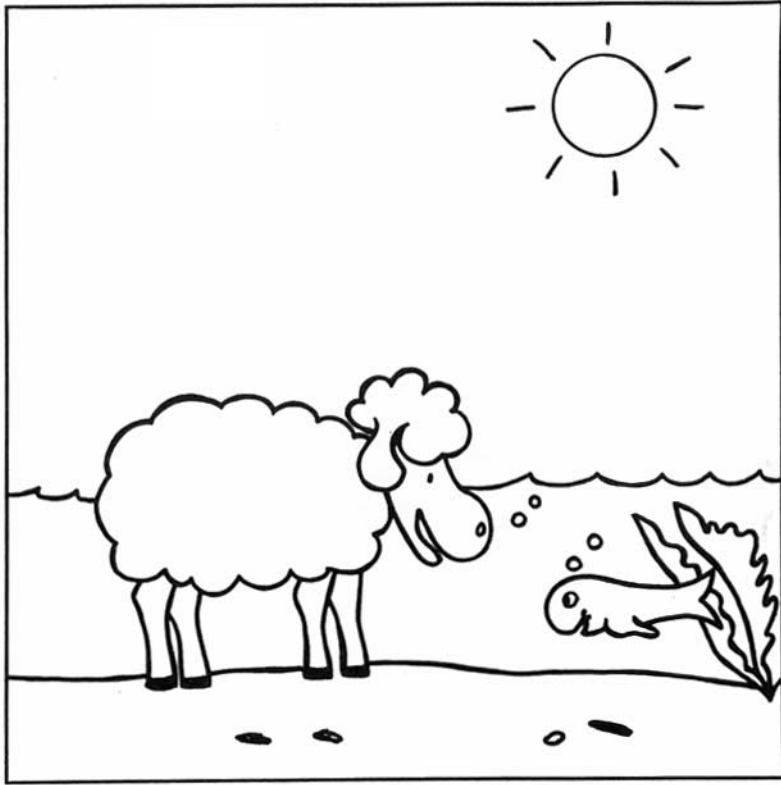

"That is a crab," said the fish.

"Look out!"

The sheep had to shake the crab.

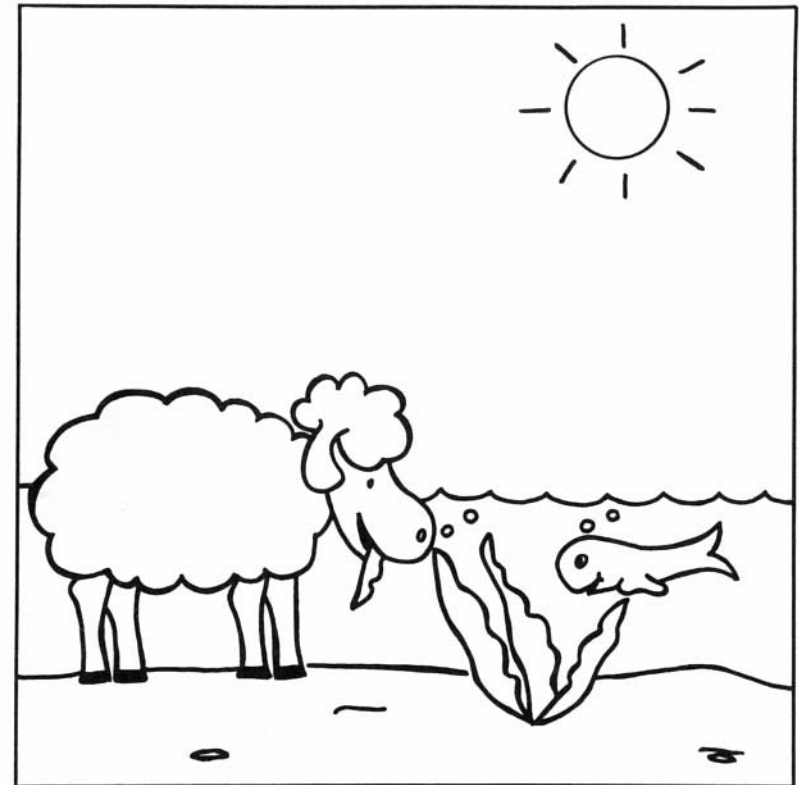

The crab let go of his nose.

"I see grass," said the sheep.

"That is not grass," said the fish.

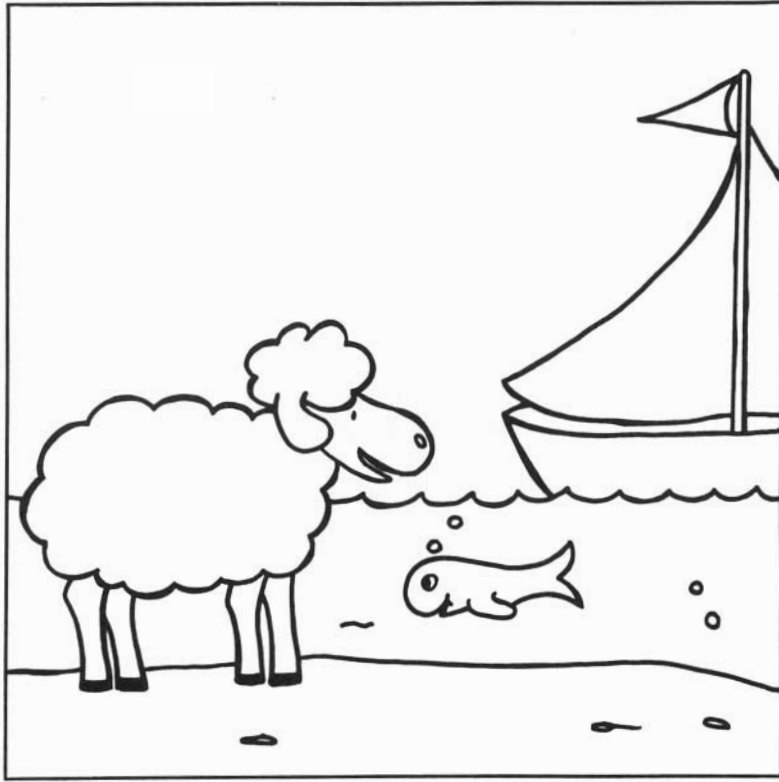

"It is seaweed."

The sheep ate the seaweed.

"That tastes bad." said the sheep.

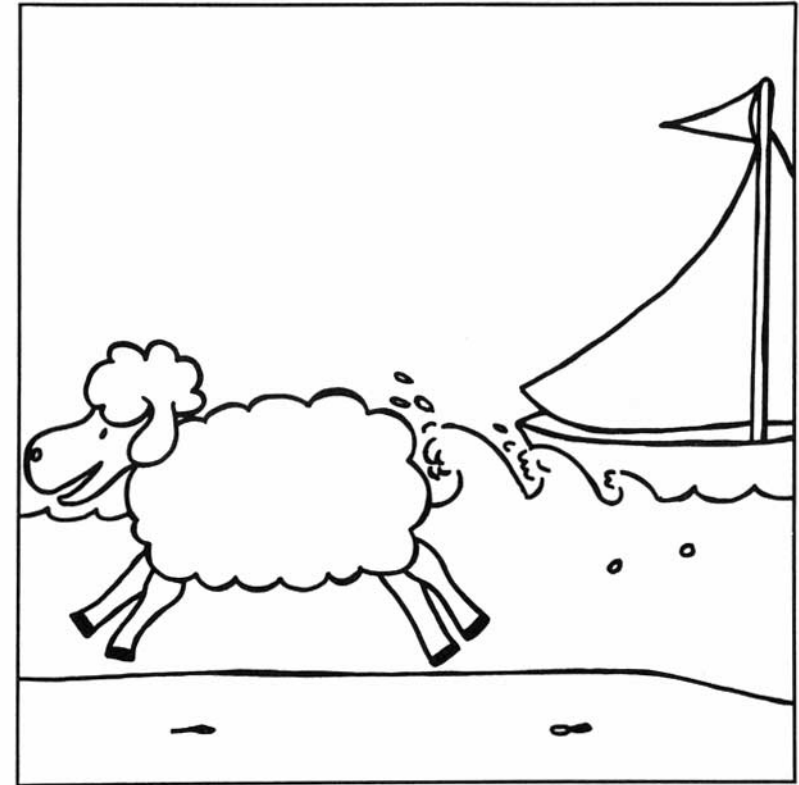

"I do not like seaweed."

"I see a ship," said the sheep.

"That is not a ship," said the fish.

"It is a sailboat."

"I must rush back to shore," said the sheep.

"It is deep here.

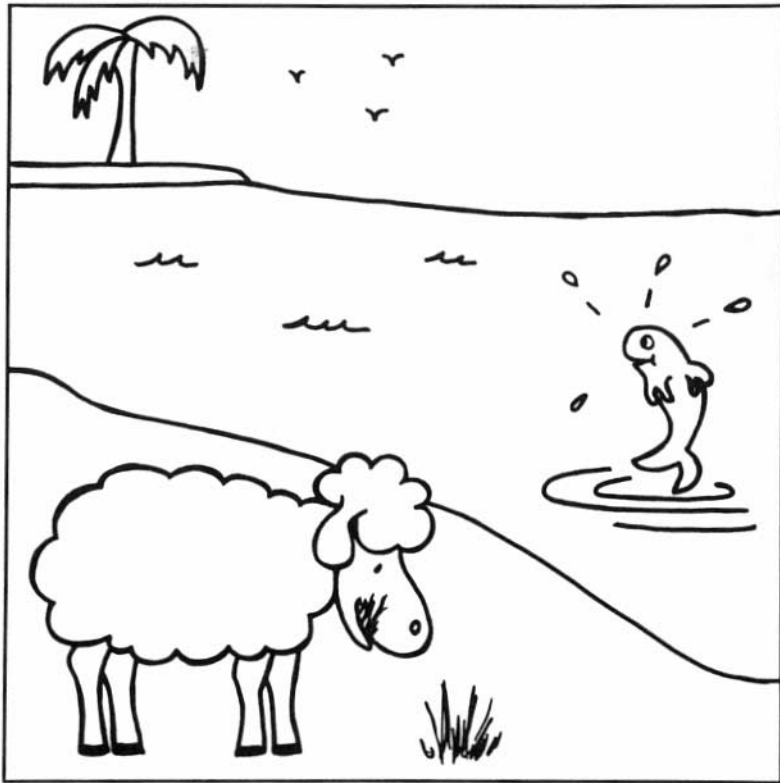

These waves scare me."

The sheep sat in the shade of a tree.
"I am glad to be back on land," said the sheep.

"Jump in," said the fish.
"We can swim and splash."

"No," said the sheep.
"I am glad to eat real grass.
And I am so glad I am a sheep."
